Summary of the Decisions Made (1)

- On National Coordination mechanism, the PEB members are looking forwards to receiving the terms of reference of the detailed arrangements before the next board meeting.
- Takes note of the importance of stakeholder engagement in the establishment of key important strategy and tools under UN-REDD and FCPF. Under the UN-REDD, the PEB members have taken important step on getting back the response letter to IPs requests and concerns.
- PEB will continue to reflect on the progress of the responses on the development of the strategy and mechanism for benefit sharing and a nationally appropriate system of safeguards.

Summary of the Decisions Made (2)

- Noted and agreed that surplus UNDP funds under Outcome 3 will be utilized to cover funding shortfalls of UNDP activities under Outcome 1 and 2.
- Approved the FCPF SOP
- Approved a no-cost extension for a period of six months. The PEB also emphasized that the MRV/REL TT needs to develop a detailed workplan for work to be conducted, and expressed the hope that the workplan might be for a period less than 6 months.
- Agree to transfer the disposal to under the FCPF fund
- Noted the appointment of H.E. Chuop Paris as REDD+ Focal Point for Cambodia to the UNFCCC and agreed to extend an invitation to H.E. Paris to join the PEB
- Next Meeting is on 11th December 2014
