Dear Sir or Madam,

After, I know your company is seeking for Application Developer Position from the announcement I am so interested in this position I would like to write cover letter to express my favorite in applying for React Native position.

According to my experiences that do a project at School, I have a good interpersonal skill as well as communication with my team member and teacher beside of my knowledge. I have taught a lot of knowledge from them. Because of this working, it encourages me to apply for this position which I like and want to learn in order to work for your company and help to develop your company.

During of studying at KOREAN SOFTWARE HRD CENTER, I had some experience of doing project and I always research new technology to do project and respond it to my school requirement.

Due to my personal skill and high motivation, I have very good communication, working under pressure and hard working. I can work both individual and team. I am sure I have ability to do work following the company's requirement. Furthermore, I hope you will give me a good chance to discuss about this position at your Company.

I would like to say thanks you so much for your time and attention to read my application form. Please find my enclosed CV in order to get more information. I am looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours Sincerely,

SORN VENG Y
